

While I am not yet a subscriber and have not made a final decision to pay for this service, finally we have an alternative choice that provides music, news, and current weather and traffic information without the intrusion of disc jockies and advertisers. This choice is an alternative that should be maintained; let the marketplace decide how this information is delivered not the NAB lobby.